

How to Use This Guide

Begin your devotions with a prayer that helps you recognize that you are in the presence of God. You may wish to use the Lord's Prayer to begin your devotional time. A Prayer of Confession is also included. It can be used after the readings from Psalms.

Read the assigned scriptures slowly and carefully. When you finish, ask yourself these four questions: (1) What do these passages of Scripture tell me about God? (2) What do they tell me about the human condition? (3) What do they tell me about the relationship between God and human beings? (4) What do these passages of Scripture ask of me? Keep a notebook or journal to record your responses. You might want to jot down any questions you have about what you read. Conclude your time alone with God by praying the appropriate morning or evening prayer printed below.

Prayer of Confession

Most merciful God, I confess to you before the whole company of heaven that I have sinned through my own fault in what I have thought, said and done, and in what I have failed to do. In particular I confess....

Gracious and merciful God, I am truly sorry and repent of all my sins. Forgive me all that is past, help me to amend what I am, and direct what I shall be, that I may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the praise and glory of your name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Morning Prayer

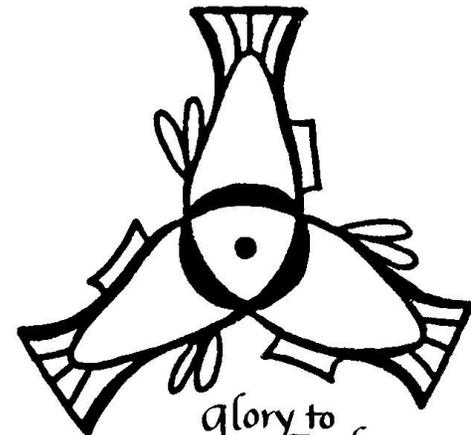

Lord God, Almighty and everlasting Father, you have brought me in safety to this new day. Preserve me with your mighty power, that I may not fall into sin, nor be overcome by adversity; and in all I do direct me to the fulfilling of your purpose; through Jesus Christ my Lord. Amen.

Evening Prayer

Keep watch, dear Lord, with those who work, or watch, or weep this night, and give your angels charge over those who sleep. Tend the sick, Lord Christ; give rest to the weary, bless the dying, soothe the suffering, pity the afflicted, shield the joyous; and all for your love's sake. Amen.

Psalm 34

People have asked about the meaning of the words "Miktam," "Maskil," "Shiggaion," "Higgaion," and "Selah." These ancient Hebrew words appear in the headings or at the end of certain stanzas of the Psalms and their meanings are lost to us. Since many of the Psalms were meant to be sung or accompanied with music, the first three Hebrew words June provide instructions to the choirmaster regarding tempo or how to sing the Psalm. "Higgaion" June refer to a type of meditation or melody. "Selah" possibly indicates an instrumental interlude between stanzas.
