

Arturo Perez

Arturo Perez is the Building Superintendent at FUMC Colleyville and is responsible for the appearance and maintenance of the church buildings and grounds.

His favorite thing about FUMC is the friendly staff who he thinks make you feel at home and loved. His favorite book of the Bible is Psalms.

Arturo loves living in Texas, but most of his family are in Mexico and he loves and misses them so much. His daughter and grandchildren live with him and he adores his grandchildren. Arturo's favorite thing to do on his day off is play with his grandchildren

Arturo loves chocolate candy and his favorite flavor of ice cream is pecan. His favorite song is the Spanish version of One Day at a Time.

Arturo takes amazing care of our church buildings and we are grateful for all he does!
