

Rev. Anne-Marie Berg

Rev. Anne-Marie Berg is the Associate Pastor at FUMC Colleyville. She assists Pastor Mike in leading the congregation spiritually and ensuring that we are connected and moving forward into our vision and mission statements. She preaches weekly in the 11:11 contemporary service, and is charged with leading our Adult Discipleship and Hospitality ministries.

Anne-Marie grew up in Georgetown, TX. She is a lifelong United Methodist and felt a calling toward ministry at 12 years old. She attended Baylor University and received a Bachelor of Arts in Religion. She then attended Perkins School of Theology at SMU, graduating in May 2022 with a Master's in Divinity. She has served in student ministry at First United Methodist Waco and Highland Park UMC, and as an associate pastor White's Chapel Methodist Church. In her free time, Anne-Marie enjoys reading, hiking, and cheering on the Dallas Mavericks with her husband, Layton Morphis.

As a provisional elder in the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church, Anne-Marie has been commissioned to preach, teach, and serve. Anne-Marie would welcome the opportunity to talk to you about what books you are reading, your journey of faith, what you are learning about God, or how you can get better connected with the wonderful church family of FUMCC!
