

Rev. Dr. Marcus Womack

Rev. Dr. Marcus Womack started as Senior Pastor with First United Methodist Church of Colleyville July 1, 2026. Marcus is married to Alyssa and they have two daughters. Their family is excited to be part of this great faith community!

Marcus loves to engage with people through weekly worship, preaching, and the sacraments. He is passionate about serving with a church that is a vital heartbeat in its neighborhood and city. Marcus has a heart for communicating God's unconditional grace and love for all people, especially in the many ways God shows up in every aspect of our lives knowing that "wherever there is truth, it is God's truth."

Marcus served most recently as Senior Pastor with Plymouth Park UMC in Irving from 2019-2026. He was ordained as an elder in the UMC in 2015, earned his Doctor of Ministry degree from Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington D.C. in 2024, his Master of Divinity at Vanderbilt Divinity School in Nashville, Tennessee in 2012, and is undergraduate degree in Management from the University of Texas at Austin in 2009.

His personal statements of purpose are rooted in the scripture of Micah 6:8, "He has told you, human one, what is good and what the Lord requires from you: to do justice, embrace faithful love, and walk humbly with your God;" along with being guided daily by Archbishop Desmond Tutu's invitation to ubuntu in all relationships that says, "My humanity is bound up in yours...I am because we are."

Marcus would love to meet you and connect through our church family!
